THE VENEZUELA PLOT

Another Arrest for Being Connected with It.

Hes No Hand to the Contemplated Insuresettion-General Ereta's Expedition Against President traiterrez Comes to tirles and Ereta Is Arrested-Coming Trouble in Hayti-Culus News.

New York, Jan. 11.-A disprich to The Herald from Caracas, Venezuela, says: General Domingo Sifontes, who was in charge of the Yuruan district at the time Sergeant Barnes was arrested by the Venezuelan authorities, has been arrested in Cludad, Bolivar, on the accusation that he has been mixed up in the late rebellion. It is alleged that he has received letters from Dr. Hernandez of New York showing the existence of a plot against the govrnment. Sifontes is a Spiritualist.

Newspapers here are urging the govern ment to send troops to the frontier to head off the English The Liberal papers say enough militis can be spared for that purpose, and if the British obtain a foot-hold in the disputed territory it will be hard to dislodge them. "In the struggle to maintain the integ-rity of our rights all parties are amalgamated into a national party which supports President Crespo GENERAL EZETA CAPTURED.

His Expedition Ends in Disaster to Himself and Others.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 -The Herald coradent in San Salvador wires that the Dairio Del Salvador publishes a special dispatch from San Jose, Costa Rica, stat-

MERAG ing that General Esota and the hiembers of his expedition have been captured. They were off l'unra Arenas, Costa Rica, when taken into custody, and are held there subject to the order of the San Sal-rador government.

General Ezeta's intention to overthrow the government of President Guitorrez had been heralded throughout Central America, and his coming was watched for by all parties. All classes of San Salva-dor citizens have called upon President Guitterez, offering money and men to sus-tain the government. Persons believed to have been implicated in Ezeta's expedi-tion have been arrested.

TROUBLE IN HAYTL

Preparations Being Made for a Far Reach ing and Important Revolution.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 .- Mail advices from Port-au-Prince, Hayti, are to the effect a revolution, far reaching in extent and im portance, is again threatened in the black republic. The correspondent says if the plans of the conspirators do not miscarry it will be under way by the latter part of January. The seven-year term of Florivel Hippolyte, the present president, expires in 1897. The constitution provides a president cannot succeed himself until at least one term of office intervenes. Hippolyte would like to name his own successor.

The trouble has been browing for three The trouble has been browing for three years or more and preparations have been going on steadily to make the coup when the time arrives. That will be some time between Jan. 20 and 30—perhaps a little earlier. The government knows this and is preparing to meet it. An election for members of the house of deputies is to be held, and the deputies then elected will form an electoral college, a majority of whose members will name the next President in October of this year. The revolutionary party has for its candidate General Francois Manigat, now an exile in Kingston, Jamaica, whither he was deported five years ago for conspiracy against the Hippolyte administration.

The War in Cuba.

NEW YORK, Jan. 11 .- A dispatch from Colon says: Communication with the United States by way of Cuba has been restored. Private Cuban advices say that in Santiago parents are sending their children off the island to prevent the making of arrests based on unguarded expressions and violent language against Spain The Isthmian, Cuban organ, says that The Isthmian, Cuban organ, says that Spain believes that Havana cannot be taken without slege guns, but adds that if the recognition of the belligerency of the insurgents is dependent upon the capture of a city, that city will be Havana. It declares also that the Cuban flag will soon fly over Moro castle, whence the Spanish flag will be tern down.
